

LITERARY LIONS FUND FOR ART HISTORY RESEARCH

The Literary Lions Fund awards enrichment grants to faculty in support of scholarly research in Art History.

Applications for the 2018-19 Literary Lions Fund for Art History Research are due Monday, March 5, 2018. Submitted materials will be reviewed by the Dean's Selection Committee. For 2018-19 there will be two awards for $2,500 each.

Eligibility

- Full-time tenured, tenure-track, and part-time faculty currently teaching in the degree program who have taught at least 10 courses at SAIC.
- Submission of scholarly research in Art History, Theory, and Criticism.

Successful applicants will have a strong record of professional achievement. Other considerations will include the length of tenure at the institution, annual teaching load, and history of previous awards from SAIC. Selections are based on the merit of the proposal, especially those that propose to complete a specific project.

Grants are not awarded to cover tuition costs at any institution, equipment purchases, or publications for exhibitions or events. Grants for expenses associated with research for potential courses are not considered.
