Your Academic Information

All SAIC students are required to understand their Academic Information and know how to access it. Become familiar with the following links on Self-Service via the Portal:

- SAIC Directory: Faculty, Staff, and Student email addresses
- My Academics

The “My Academics” link

Please Note: This guide will show you how to print Unofficial Transcripts. Official Transcripts can be requested online:

https://www.studentclearinghouse.org/secure_area/Transcript/to_home.asp?t=1602556&LoginHome=to_home.asp
When you click on the “My Academics” link, you can view:

- Who is your Academic Advisor?
- Unofficial Transcripts
- Transfer credits applied towards your degree
- Your Advisement Report
- and more!

Most importantly, you will need to become familiar with using your Advisement Report and reviewing this information before meeting with your Academic Advisor.
Your Advisement Report gives you a summary of your degree plan, how many credits your degree plan requires, and how many credits you have actually completed (which includes all courses you are currently enrolled in, transfer credits, incomplete grades, as well as grades not reported.)

PLEASE NOTE: In Progress Courses (where no grade is posted), transfer credits (T), grades that have not been reported (NR), and grades of incomplete (INC) are included in the Advisement Report. If you withdraw or drop courses, or fail to earn credit for In Progress or incomplete courses (or for courses where the grade has not been reported -NR), you will have to rerun your advisement report and/or factor these changes into your planning.
