Martin Luther King, Jr. Day 2016 Mural Competition - Call for Submissions

Help Hostelling International Chicago celebrate Martin Luther King, Jr. Day 2016

Twenty student artists will be selected to paint individual pieces honoring the life and work of Dr. King and the continuing struggle for social justice today on the 2nd floor windows of Hostelling International Chicago.

A panel of judges will evaluate the artwork and 1st, 2nd and 3rd place prizes will be awarded to the students whose works best represent the spirit of the exhibit.

- 1st Place: $300
- 2nd Place: $200
- 3rd Place: $100

All artists who are invited to participate will receive recognition at the artists’ reception held on the day after Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Tuesday, January 19, 2016.

Submission Process
Students must submit a portfolio of up to 10 images of recent work along with this submission form in person or by mail by Monday November 2, 2015. Portfolios may be submitted in person at the hostel or electronically to Anna Henschel (see contact information below).

Artists selected to create paintings for the windows will be notified by November 20, 2015. The final paintings will be on display on Martin Luther King Day through the end of February.
