GOLUB & COMPANY CREATES SCHOLARSHIP AT SCHOOL OF THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO (SAIC)

Chicago, IL—The School of the Art Institute of Chicago (SAIC) announces that Golub & Company—celebrating 50 years of business in 2010—has established the Golub Scholarship at SAIC, joining the Edes Foundation Prize, the Eunice W. Johnson Fellowship, and the John W. Kurtich Travel Scholarships as one of four major student awards established at SAIC in 2010.

““We are excited to help future generations and are especially pleased to be collaborating with SAIC, as they exemplify the best of Chicago’s art, culture and design philosophies,” said Michael Newman, Golub’s president and CEO. And we are proud to announce our first Golub Scholarship recipient, Chicagoan Baltazar Castillo.”

“It is energizing to partner with Golub & Company, a leader in the Chicago business community. Their support of our next generation of visionary makers and thinkers is an invaluable contribution to the city,” said SAIC Dean of Faculty Lisa Wainwright. “SAIC is very grateful to Golub & Company for creating a scholarship that will help students develop the critical thinking and creative skills that will allow them to make important contributions to our cultural future. We celebrate their commitment to the Chicago community over the past 50 years.”
