BASIC FACTS

You must be a U.S. citizen.

You must have completed at least a bachelor’s degree by the time of application. If you have graduated from SAIC before December 2013, you will need to apply as an At-Large candidate.

SAIC Fulbright Program Advisor is Nancy Gildart, ngildart@saic.edu, 312-629-6810. Make an appointment via http://www.supersaas.com/schedule/SAIC_Career_Services

Start at http://us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html for lots of information on the program, including guidance sessions and webinars.

Individual country summaries are here: http://us.fulbrightonline.org/program_regions_world.html

Begin your application here: http://us.fulbrightonline.org/applicants/getting-started

In addition to the application, you will need to submit:
- Statement of grant purpose
- Personal statement
- All college transcripts
- 3 letters of reference
- Language evaluation (if necessary to your host country)
- Affiliation letters from institutions in host country
- A portfolio of work – if you are applying in a creative or performing arts field

You must also have an interview with an SAIC Faculty Fulbright Committee.

Meet with Nancy Gildart early and often.