Martin Luther King, Jr. Day 2012 Mural Competition

Call for Submissions

Opportunity for Student Artists!
Help Hostelling International Chicago and The School of the Art Institute of Chicago celebrate Martin Luther King, Jr. Day 2012 with your artwork.

Twenty student artists will be selected to paint individual pieces on the 2nd floor windows of Hostelling International Chicago. The exhibit is a consideration of the continuing struggle for civil rights today.

All artists who are invited to participate in this annual commemoration will receive recognition at the artists’ reception held on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Monday, January 16, 2012.

A panel of judges will evaluate the final artwork and 1st, 2nd and 3rd Place Prizes will be awarded to the students whose work best represent the spirit of the exhibit.

For more information and photos of previous years’ murals, visit us online at www.hichicago.org/mlk.shtml.

Submission Process
Students must submit a portfolio of up to 10 images of recent work along with the submission form in person or by mail by October 14, 2011. Portfolios may be submitted in person at the hostel or electronically to Arielle Semmel (see contact information below).

Artists selected to create paintings for the windows will be notified by October 15, 2011. Artists must submit a draft of their work on or before December 17, 2011. The paintings will be on display January 14 through March 31, 2012.
