ON-CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY

Federal Work-Study

Domestic and eligible Permanent Resident students will find their eligibility for Federal Work-Study (FWS) listed on their award letter. Award amounts vary based on financial need and academic level. This eligibility was determined as a result of filing a FAFSA. Students need to be enrolled at least 6 credit hours (unless it is their last semester to graduate) to work on campus. Students do not need FWS eligibility to work on campus.

One benefit to being paid through the FWS program is that students can list those earning on the next year’s FAFSA in both the income and the “Additional Financial Information.” The question on the FAFSA for the latter is “Taxable earnings from need-based employment programs, such as Federal Work-Study.” FWS earnings listed there will be exempted for purpose of calculating aid eligibility.

Students wishing to work during the summer or winter interim sessions must have been enrolled for at least 6 hours during the preceding fall or spring term and for the following term, unless it is your final term prior to graduation. Students who meet the requirements to work during the summer and winter terms are eligible to work up to 40 hours per week (all jobs combined) if you are not in classes. It is not advisable for a student enrolled in classes to work 40 hours. Students may not work any more than 20 hours per week during periods of enrollment.

YOUR ON-CAMPUS EARNING ELIGIBILITY IN SELF-SERVICE

Students should electronically request an Earning Eligibility Report in Self-Service. Go to Student Homepage > Other Services Non-Mobile > Earning Report > enter term. This report shows domestic students their total Federal Work-Study (FWS) eligibility amount, how much FWS is already authorized for use and still available, and for both International and Domestic students, if they have properly completed the I-9 process to begin working their first day of employment. Students are not required to have FWS, however, supervisors are asked to give FWS students priority first if considering hiring a domestic student. Students should provide this report to supervisors during the interview and job application process and can send the PDF by email to them.
INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS (F-1 VISA)

International students in F-1 status are not awarded Federal Work-Study (FWS) eligibility but can work in on-campus jobs that require FWS eligibility. Students may not work off campus without authorization from International Affairs. Working off-campus without authorization is a serious violation of immigration status.

Employment is limited to 20 hours per week for international students during fall and spring terms and 40 hours during winter and summer terms. Students are required to complete a federal I-9 form and must apply for a U.S. social security number if they do not already have one. Students applying for a social security number must do so within two weeks of employment and should provide Student Payroll with a letter or receipt from the Social Security Administration showing that they have begun the process. Students and managers can visit saic.edu/studentpayroll for detailed information.

If evidence of having applied for a Social Security Number is not provided within two weeks of employment, the student may be terminated from their on-campus position.

Note: Students in F-1 status are eligible to apply for a Social Security Number through the Social Security Administration only if they have an on-campus job and only after ten days of presence in the U.S.

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER APPLICATION INCLUDE:

» Social Security letter (provided by International Affairs)
» Most recent I-20 form
» Valid passport with F-1 visa
» I-94 card or printed I-94 record of admission

Note: F-1 International students can work off campus only if earning course credit through one of the Internship options and with a Curricular Practical Training (CPT) authorization.

Note: Employment regulations for international students can change. Visit International Affairs with any questions to avoid violations of your immigration status.
GRADUATE STUDENTS ONLY:

Working as a Teaching Assistant is an ideal way to get experience and additional mentorship from faculty members. These positions range from assisting a professor in a classroom to providing technical help in a fabrication studio to teaching a class on your own.

Positions are available in most SAIC studio and academic departments as well as fabrication studios and output centers. Three to six hours of class time are required per week per class, along with additional preparation time outside of class.

Earning eligibility is not required but a graduate student must be enrolled at least 6 credit hours (unless it is their last semester to graduate) to hold one of these positions. Post-bacc students are not eligible, regardless of past experience or expertise.

Each department posts its available positions on Handshake, one semester in advance — every November for spring and winter terms and every April for summer and fall terms. Watch for email reminders along with reminders posted in the CAPX bi-weekly email newsletter.

First-year grad students are encouraged to check in with their home departments as well as with Contemporary Practices, the Sharp Instructional Shop, the Sullivan Fabrication Studio and the Advanced Output Center, in case there are unfilled positions.
A wide range of diverse organizations, businesses, and studios are eager to host SAIC students as interns. The internship course is designed to provide students an opportunity to gain experience as interns in professional arts and design environments and prepare for professional life after SAIC.

Faculty provide in-depth mentorship and act as a liaison with the internship site helping students meet their learning goals as outlined for the semester. Through group meetings and online discussions, students engage with a peer cohort of students participating in a variety of internships. Students work on-site at internships for a total of 140 hours (approximately 14 hours per week) for the term. Students may register for 1.5 credits for courses 4001/5001, which reduces the internship hours to 70 hours.

Students are required to secure an internship prior to the start of the semester. Internships must be approved by the Career and Professional Experience (CAPX) office. Students are encouraged to meet with a CAPX advisor for assistance with researching and applying for internships. In order to begin the internship approval process, students must fill out the internship approval request form that can be found on the saic.edu/careers website.

Students must secure an internship and register it with CAPX to participate in these courses. A wide variety of internship opportunities, both paid and unpaid, are available on Handshake. Students are not, however, restricted to internships listed on this platform. Additionally, Federal Work Study (FWS) can be used for positions with not-for-profit organizations. Note: F-1 International students can work off campus only if earning course credit through one of the internship options, and must have Curricular Practical Training (CPT) authorization on their I-20. As with other SAIC courses, you must register your internship for course credit before the SAIC semester add/drop date. Tuition is charged for internship courses.

There are three internship course options:

I-9 Packet — If you are a first-time SAIC employee, submit an I-9 packet within three days of employment. The I-9 packet includes:

» Federal I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification form
» Drug-Free Certification Statement

Domestic students should also complete the Federal and State W-4 forms (online in Self-Service Employee Center). International students must complete paper versions of the W-4 forms.

Complete these immediately to meet federal regulations. Federal law requires that employees complete the employee section of the I-9 employment eligibility verification form no later than the end of the third day of employment. Employees must present documents evidencing their identity and work authorization from the lists of acceptable documents accompanying the I-9 as listed on page 9 of this guide. If an employee fails to comply with these legal requirements, they will not be able to work for the School of the Art Institute of Chicago.

Student Employment Work Authorizations — Once you have secured a job, your supervisor will complete a Student Employment Work Authorization for you online. You will receive an e-mail requesting that you approve the authorization and terms for employment in Self-Service. You are ready to begin working once you have approved the authorization in Self-Service. Please allow 24 hours for your job to then appear in ARTICtime, our online platform where you will record your hours. It is suggested that you and your supervisor complete the authorization process at least one day prior to beginning employment to ensure that you are able to record time worked in ARTICtime.

GETTING PAID & EMPLOYMENT FORMS FOR ON-CAMPUS POSITIONS

The ARTICtime Dashboard is at artictime.artic.edu

Once a work authorization has been submitted and approved, students can begin to record their time in ARTICtime. At the end of the pay period, students will need to submit their time online in ARTICtime.

» Student Financial Services offers training on the ARTICtime system for students and supervisors. Check with the Student Financial Services Office for the training schedule.

» Most students will record their time in ARTICtime using the WebClock at webclock.artic.edu. A limited number of students will record their time using Elapsed Time.

» Students using the WebClock will need to check with their supervisors to find out which computer they should be using to record their time.

» Payroll Schedules — Annual payroll schedules are available in the Student Payroll section at saic.edu/studentpayroll on the SAIC website.

» Timeheets — students must submit their time in ARTICtime every other Monday by 10:00 a.m.

» Direct Deposit/Paychecks — You should enroll in Direct Deposit by logging into Self-Service, clicking on the Employee Center and completing the correct information on the “Direct Deposit Setup” link. Students choosing not to use Direct Deposit will have to pick up their paychecks at the Cashier/Bursar’s Office according to the Student Payroll Schedule. Paychecks not picked up are escalated to the Student Financial Services office, who will in turn contact the student to arrange for pick up and strongly urge students to sign up for Direct Deposit.
