Adjunct, Retired

Policy Statement

The School of the Art Institute of Chicago (SAIC) offers the status of Adjunct, Retired to members of the part-time Adjunct faculty who have taught at SAIC for 20+ years, are at least 50 years of age at retirement, retired in good standing, and submitted a request to the Dean of Faculty. The Adjunct, Retired status allows the School to maintain relationships with its most respected and experienced part-time faculty. This relationship also helps promote awareness of SAIC through the ongoing accomplishments of retired Adjunct faculty.

Adjunct, Retired status is considered an honorific rank; conferring the privileges as described below. This status is not awarded to all retirees, and it can be revoked by the Dean of Faculty, who oversees the administration of the status. There is no set number of holders of this status, and a complete list of honorees is kept in the Office of the Dean of Faculty. Any questions about status and benefits should be directed to the Office of the Dean of Faculty.
