

FULL-TIME VISITING FACULTY POSITION IN THE DEPARTMENT OF VISUAL COMMUNICATION DESIGN

The Department of Visual Communication Design at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago (SAIC) invites applications for a one-year visiting faculty position, beginning August 2022.

PROGRAM PROFILE

The Department of Visual Communication Design (VCD) awards Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) and Master of Fine Arts (MFA) degrees. VCD galvanizes students to be original, critical, empathetic and vital. Our students represent a diverse collection of interests, skills and cultures, united by a common goal: to explore and experiment, engage and excite, and ultimately advance whatever purpose they choose to pursue through the power of visual and verbal communication.

We prepare our students for a life in design by guiding them along a pathway that is both rooted and radical in its structure and trajectory. We provide a critically-based design education through an understanding of social implications; cultural and historical roles of design; the creation of meaningful, creative, and informative visual forms and messages to diverse audiences; and the exploration and application of a range of technologies, methodologies, and theories to target, develop and assess interactions and experiences. This happens at every level of the curriculum, from the overall framework to individual courses, activities and outcomes. This distinctive approach is made more potent within the context of a legendary, multi-disciplinary art school aligned with one of the most highly regarded art museums in the world.

Further information about the department can be found here.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Full-Time Visiting Designer in the Department of Visual Communication Design will teach and advise undergraduate and graduate students within the interdisciplinary art and design school environment of SAIC. They will join the vibrant faculty in teaching undergraduate and graduate students in core discipline courses which may include Intro to Visual Communication, and Beginning and Intermediate Graphic Design and Typography. The Visiting Designer will be expected to teach three courses in each of the fall and spring semesters, as well as participate in departmental activities.

QUALIFICATIONS

A terminal degree in visual communication, graphic design, or other relevant field of study is preferred. Some university teaching experience is preferred. We seek designers from both academia and/or industry, with a design practice and pedagogical approach that can excite and engage our students. The ideal candidate will contribute to the diversity of the School by bringing a perspective, way of thinking, and/or a unique set of experiences that expand the intellectual conversations and practices in the field. We seek candidates with the knowledge and aptitude to teach and mentor students from diverse backgrounds.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

On or before April 22, 2022, please submit application materials via <http://SAICfaculty.slideroom.com>. You will be asked to create an account after which time you may complete the application composed of fill-in fields and uploaded documents. SAIC will underwrite the application fees; you will not be charged to apply for the position. You are encouraged to begin the application well before the deadline. No applications may be submitted beyond the deadline for any reason.

Complete the fields for: educational background; current position; and contact information for three professional references.

Please convert all word documents into PDFs before uploading. Required files to upload include:

- cover letter stating your interests and qualifications
