Graduate Outside Scholarships

Below is a list of outside scholarships researched by SAIC staff members for which you may be qualified to apply. This information was gathered through online search engines and by SAIC from organizations offering scholarships. Please note that these awards are not limited to organizations through which SAIC students have received funding.

ROTCHE TRAVELING SCHOLARSHIP

The Rotch Traveling Scholarship is an annual two-stage design competition that grants the awarded Rotch Scholar an opportunity to travel and study architecture for a minimum of six months. The Scholarship is for $38,500. In the first stage of the selection process, a weekend-long preliminary design competition is held. Finalists from this competition go on to compete in the second stage, a 10-day competition which culminates in a design presentation to a distinguished jury in Boston.

For more information, please visit: rotch.org/scholarship/competitions/index.html

ARNOLD W. BRUNNER GRANT

This grant furthers advanced study in any area of architectural investigation which will contribute to the knowledge, teaching or practice of the art and science of architecture. Single or multiple awards of up to $15,000 are available. The proposed investigation will result in a final written work, design project, research paper, or other form of presentation.

For more information, please visit: https://www.aiany.org/architecture/competitions-grants/arnold-w-brunner-grant/

ARCHITECTURE MASTER DEGREE TRAVELING FELLOWSHIP

The SOM Prize is a $50,000 research and travel fellowship that enables one outstanding applicant the opportunity to travel while carrying out in-depth research on a subject of their choosing; to meet with other professionals in the field; and to pursue study outside the realm of established patterns. A second award, the $20,000 SOM Travel Fellowship, offers an applicant the opportunity to expand their professional education beyond the classroom through the observation of buildings, design, culture and history that can only be achieved through travel.

For more information, please visit: somfoundation.som.com/award

A/E PRONET DAVID W. LAKAMP AIA SCHOLARSHIP

Initiated in 1990 by a/e ProNet, a group of insurance professionals providing risk management services to architects and engineers, this annual award is given to two students who demonstrate strong interest in practice management. Two $5,000 scholarships will be awarded toward the student’s university fees. The award check will be mailed directly to the university; it may not be deferred for use later or transferred to another individual.

For more information, please visit: network.aia.org/practicemanagement/home/pronet

SIR JOHN SOANE’S MUSEUM FOUNDATION’S TRAVELING FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The American Architectural Foundation’s Fellowship at the Sir John Soane’s Museum provides a $5,000 grant annually to a student in a graduate degree program in art history, architecture, interior design or related fields to travel to England to pursue research on any aspect of the work of Sir John Soane or the Sir John Soane’s Museum and collections. In order to be eligible, an applicant must be enrolled in a graduate degree program in the history of art, architecture, the decorative arts, interior design or in a field appropriate to the Foundation’s purpose. Awards will be made without regard to race, creed, sex, or national origin.

For more information, please visit: soanefoundation.com/fellowship.html

ELIZABETH GREENSHIELDS AWARD/GRANT

The Foundation provides financial assistance to artists who work in a representational style of painting, drawing, sculpture or printmaking, are in the early or developmental stage of their career, and demonstrate a commitment to pursuing art as a lifetime career. Applicants who are being considered for a grant may be asked to supply supporting documentation.

The Foundation is neither a school nor a gallery. It does not conduct classes or organize exhibitions. First grants are in the amount of $15,000 (Canadian) each, and subsequent checks are in the amount of $18,000 (Canadian).

The Foundation welcomes applications throughout the year. First-time applicants may apply at any time after their 18th birthday.

For more information, please visit: elizabethgreenshieldsfoundation.org/main.html

MARION BARR STANFIELD AND PAULY D’ORLANDO ART SCHOLARSHIPS

The Marion Barr Stanfield Art Scholarship is for graduate or undergraduate Unitarian Universalist students preparing for a career in fine arts. The terms of the trust limit eligibility to those in the early or developmental stage of their career, and demonstrate a commitment to pursuing art as a lifetime career. Scholarships are awarded for one year; however students may reapply each year if they wish to continue receiving financial assistance. Scholarship winners are notified in May for the academic year that begins the following September.

For more information, please visit: uua.org/care/scholarships/stanfield
THE JOHN F. AND ANNA LEE STACEY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

In accordance with the will of the late Anna Lee Stacey, The John F. and Anna Lee Stacey Scholarship Fund was created for the education of young scholars who aim to make art their profession. The scholarship is open to United States citizens only, both men and women, single or married, irrespective of race, creed or color. The age limit is between 18 and 35 years. Award amounts vary annually and range from $500 to $5,000 per recipient. At the discretion of the Committee, this may be awarded in quarterly installments to one or more applicants. Applications will be available online and accepted from November 1 through the following February 1. Notification will be emailed to applicants by April 1. Check(s) will be mailed to winner(s) by May 1.

For more information, please visit: nationalcowboymuseum.org/learn-discover/stacey-scholarship-fund/

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FELLOWSHIP FOR MFA CANDIDATES

CAA's Professional Development Fellowships program supports promising artists, designers, craftspersons, historians, curators, and critics who are enrolled in MFA, PhD, and other terminal degree programs nationwide. Fellows are honored with $10,000 grants to help them with various aspects of their work, whether it be for job-search expenses or purchasing materials for the studio. CAA believes a grant of this kind, without contingencies, can best facilitate the transition between graduate studies and professional careers.

One award will be presented to a practitioner—an artist, designer, and/or craftsperson—and one award will be presented to an art, architecture, and/or design historian, curator, or critic. Fellows also receive a free one-year CAA membership and complimentary registration to the Annual Conference. Honorable mentions, given at the discretion of the jury, also earn a free one-year CAA membership and complimentary registration to the Annual Conference.

CAA initiated its fellowship program in 1993 to help student artists and art historians bridge the gap between their graduate studies and professional careers.

For more information, please visit: http://www.collegeart.org/programs/fellowships

NPPF SCHOLARSHIPS

National Press Photographers Foundation Inc. scholarships are awarded to encourage those with the talent and dedication to photojournalism and who need financial assistance to continue their studies. These awards are directed toward those studying full-time or returning to college.

For more information, please visit: nppf.org/nppf-scholarships-grants-and-awards

BRUCE T. AND JACKIE MAHI ERICKSON SCHOLARSHIP

This grant supports an undergraduate or graduate student pursuing studies in the creation of crafts, art and photography and/or independent research relating to historical Hawaiian crafts and arts. Student must be in good academic standing, demonstrate financial need and be pursuing a post-high school degree consistent with the purpose of this scholarship.

For more information, please visit: http://www.pauahi.org/scholarships

RUTH SEGAL SCHOLARSHIP, PART OF THE FOFARE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Known as the Ruth Segal Scholarship, the program is named after a long-time member of the Outdoor Advertising Association of America (OAAA) staff, who worked tirelessly to educate federal and state policymakers about the Out-of-home (OOH) advertising industry. The goal of the scholarship is to encourage the study of issues specifically related to OOH advertising and public affairs. Since 2001, over $300,000 in scholarships have been awarded to over 90 students, most of whom have direct connections to the industry. Nine scholarships are awarded each year.

For more information, please visit: fofare.org/fofarescholarshipprogram.aspx

DOCUMENT MANAGEMENT AND GRAPHIC COMMUNICATIONS INDUSTRY SCHOLARSHIPS, PART OF THE ELECTRONIC DOCUMENT SYSTEMS FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP (EDSF) AWARDS PROGRAM

The EDSF scholarship program was initiated in 1999 to recognize and support the next generation of professionals for the Document Management and Graphic Communication industry. The industry encompasses the wide range of businesses and professionals involved in the creation, management, production, distribution and storage of print and electronic documents. Awards range from $1,000–$5,000, with at least 10 scholarships awarded each year.

For more information, please visit: http://www.edsf.org/

ARTS GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

Funded by Alberta Heritage Scholarship Fund, the Arts Graduate Scholarship recognizes and encourages Alberta students who have demonstrated outstanding ability in the arts and who are currently pursuing graduate study. Up to seven awards of $15,000 each are available for master level or equivalent level of study in music, drama, dance, literary arts, and the visual arts.

For more information, please visit: https://studentaid.alberta.ca/scholarships/alberta-scholarships.aspx?sk=197

PULASKI SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarship of $5,000 for graduate students of Polish descent enrolled at an accredited university in the United States, who have completed at least one year of studies at the graduate level.

For more information, please visit: polishcultureaspc.org/scholar/PulaskiSch.html

SCHOLARSHIPS SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN ART THERAPY ASSOCIATION, INC.

The American Art Therapy Association and its generous donors provide a number of scholarships annually which are presented at the Annual Conference to encourage the growth of the profession by rewarding excellence and enabling access to information and resources for the members who are selected by the Scholarship Committee.

The applicants must be current members of the American Art Therapy Association. All applications, with full attachments must be received by April 1. Students applying for awards must be attending an American Art Therapy Association approved Graduate Art Therapy Program. Student applicants must be first or second year students and if part-time the student must be registered for at least 4 classes for the fall academic term.

Awards are granted only to active student members of the Association, except for the Pearlie Roberson Award which is also open to Professional level members as well. Attendance at the Association’s Annual Conference is mandatory for acceptance of the award as noted in the Guidelines.

For more information, please visit: arttherapy.org/aaata-awards

THE DON & GEE NICHOLL FELLOWSHIPS

The Don & Gee Nicholl Fellowships in Screenwriting competition was established with the intent of aiding struggling screenwriters to improve their craft. Fellowships are awarded with the understanding that the recipients will each complete a feature-length screenplay during their fellowship year. The Academy acquires no rights to the works of Nicholl fellows and does not involve itself commercially in any way with their completed scripts. The Don & Gee Nicholl Fellowships in Screenwriting, awarded annually by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, is the world’s most esteemed screenwriting competition. The annual competition accepts submissions between February and May 1 of every year. Each year up to five $35,000 fellowships are awarded to promising authors who have previously earned less than $25,000 writing for film or television.

For more information, please visit: oscars.org/awards/nicholl
NOLAN MOORE MEMORIAL EDUCATION FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP
The Foundation’s main purpose is to support industry education, as well as offering scholarships to students who are pursuing a career in printing technology/management. Since its inception, the Foundation has provided over $180,000 in scholarships to students in Texas, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Missouri. Scholarship amounts range from $500 (freshman) to $2,500 (seniors) per year and are based on the student’s academic and non-academic accomplishments. Eligible students must attend an accredited printing management or technology program and have permanent residence in one of the four states (Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri) served by PIA MidAmerican. Students must be pursuing a management or technology degree. Those who are interested in design, photography, or web-based careers will not be considered for the scholarship. The application deadline is March 1st of every year for the school year beginning in the fall.
For more information, please visit: piamidam.org/nolan-moore-foundation

GRADUATE ARTS SCHOLARSHIP
The Leslie T. and Frances U. Posey Foundation provides scholarships to graduate-level art students majoring in traditional figurative painting or sculpture. The institution at which the graduate student wishes to study should be known for teaching traditional painting or sculpture. This Foundation was established through a bequest in 1985, by international renowned sculptor, Leslie T. Posey, a resident of Sarasota for many years. Annual scholarships range from $3,000 to $4,500 and are disbursed in one payment before the beginning of the fall semester. Payment will be made payable to the university in the form of a check. Grant recipients must be full-time students and must maintain satisfactory progress toward their academic goals. If the student is just starting their master’s program, evidence of acceptance into a program must be provided before distribution of funds can be made.
For more information, please visit: csascholars.org/posey/index.php

INTER-AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP — STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITY
Open to journalists or journalism school seniors or graduates between 21 and 35 years of age with a good command of the language on their craft. Students must have completed their degree prior to the scholarship year. Language ability for U.S. and Canadian candidates must be attested to by a recognized authority in Spanish or Portuguese. Latin American candidates must take a TOEFL test (Test of English as a Foreign Language). U.S. and Canadian Scholars will receive U.S. $20,000 for the duration of their stay abroad. Latin American and Caribbean scholars will receive U.S. $20,000 and a one-time round-trip airfare for the year.
For more information, please visit: en.sipiapa.org/contenidos/want-a-scholarship.html

PRINCESS GRACE SCHOLARSHIPS IN DANCE, THEATER, AND FILM
One-time scholarship for students enrolled either part-time or full-time in filmmaking or video programs. Must have completed one year of study and must be a U.S. citizen. The number of scholarships granted varies from fifteen to twenty annually. Scholarship value ranges from $5,000 to $25,000. All applicants, except playwrights, must be nominated by a school department chair/dean or company artistic director.
For more information, please visit: pgfusa.org/grants-program/guidelines

JACK J. ISGUR FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP
The purpose of the Foundation is to provide funds for students majoring in education at four-year colleges. The Foundation provides funds to students who have indicated a desire to teach the humanities (e.g., literature, philosophy, fine arts, music, art or poetry) at the elementary and middle school levels. The Foundation prefers to provide funds to students entering their junior (or subsequent) year of college and who are interested in teaching within the State of Missouri in rural districts. Fifteen to thirty scholarships will be awarded up to $3,000 each.
For more information, please visit: isgur.org/

NATIONAL SCULPTURE SOCIETY ALEX J. ETTL GRANT
The Ettl Grant is an unrestricted prize of $5,000 sponsored by the National Sculpture Society. It is awarded annually to a figurative or realist sculptor who has demonstrated an outstanding ability in his or her body of work. The Ettl Grant is for a mature body of work; sculpture created in workshop or instructional settings should not be submitted. The jury consists of three prominent sculptors. Applicants cannot be elected members of the National Sculpture Society. All applicants must be citizens of or residents in the United States with a social security number.
For more information, please visit: https://nationalsculpture.org/programs-awards

NATIONAL SCULPTURE SOCIETY SCHOLARSHIPS
Scholarships of $2,000 each are available for students of figurative or representational sculpture. Scholarships are paid directly to the academic institution through which the student applies. The educational institution the student attends must be an accredited U.S. institution. Please note that work that is inspired by nature — or figurative or realist sculpture — is preferred.
For more information, please visit: https://nationalsculpture.org/programs-awards

GOLDEN EAGLE COMPETITION AND SPECIAL JURY AWARD
This award is presented by the Council on International Nontheatrical Events (CINE) Award for the best film or video art at an international level. The number of available awards and dollar value of awards varies. Applicant must be enrolled or expecting to enroll full or part-time at a four-year or technical institution or university. Available to U.S. and non-U.S. citizens.
For more information, please visit: https://cine.org/student

WORLD STUDIO AIGA SCHOLARSHIPS
World Studio AIGA Scholarships benefit minority and economically disadvantaged students who are studying the design/arts disciplines in colleges and universities in the United States. To this end, scholarship recipients are selected not only for their ability and their need, but also for their demonstrated commitment to giving back to the larger community through their work. Basic scholarships are awarded in the amount of $2,000-$5,000. Grand Prize awards are also given each year in amounts up to $6,000 at the jury’s discretion. These awards are paid directly to your school to be applied toward your tuition. iHonorable Mention prizes in the amount of $500 cash are also awarded.
For more information, please visit: aiga.org/worldstudio-scholarship

STEEL BLUM STUDENT RESEARCH GRANT
This $2,000 grant is awarded to the student to provide financial assistance with research; an additional travel component of up to $500 is awarded as a stipend to allow the recipient to present the completed research at a National Symposium. The grant is named for Stella Blum, a costume curator, educator, writer, scholar and founding member and fellow of CSA. Affiliated with The Metropolitan Museum of Art Costume Institute since 1940, she became curator in 1975. This grant was established after her death in 1985 and was first awarded in 1987.
For more information, please visit: http://costumesocietyamerica.com/resources/grants-awards-and-honors/stella-blum-grant/
FRANCIS D. LYON SCHOLARSHIPS
The Francis D. Lyon Scholarships are made possible through a generous gift made by Academy Award winning film editor, writer and producer, Brother "Pete" Lyon. Brother Lyon established the scholarships in 1996 to assist students who shared his passion for making films. Individuals who are not members of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity are eligible to receive the Lyon scholarships and are actively encouraged to apply. Scholarships are currently $2,500 and open to anyone pursuing an education in film-making. All Lyon Award applications must be submitted online.
For more information, please visit: philadelphiafoundation/ scholarshipsfellowships/graduate-fellowships

ALFRED G. AND ELMA M. MILOTTE SCHOLARSHIP
The scholarship is available to U.S. citizens, and is intended for those who are profoundly fascinated by nature, and have successfully expressed their observations in an artistic mode that engages the everyday person. Scholarship is for use in freshman, sophomore, junior, senior, or graduate years; not renewable. Applicants must have been a resident of the state of Washington for at least five years prior to applying to be eligible for an award up to $4,000. Students must be enrolled or expecting to enroll full or part-time at a two-year or four-year university and have a 3.0 GPA or higher.
For more information, please visit: milotte.org/apply.html

HERB SOCIETY RESEARCH GRANTS
One to five awards of up to $5,000. Cannot be used for tuition, but can be used to fund projects. Awarded to persons with a proposed program of scientific, academic, or artistic investigation of herbal plants. Must submit a proposal and budget with application by January 31.
For more information, please visit: http://www.herbsociety.org/support/grants-scholarships

OFA NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP/CASEY FAMILY SCHOLARS
Award of up to $10,000 to a young person, under the age of 25, who has been in public or private foster care for 12 consecutive months prior to their 18th birthday; OR have been adopted or placed into legal guardianship from foster care after their 16th birthday; OR they must have been orphaned for at least one year at the time of their 18th birthday. Scholarships are awarded for the pursuit of post-secondary education, including vocational/technical training, and are renewable each year based on satisfactory progress and financial need. Scholarship for use in freshman, sophomore, junior, senior, graduate, or post-graduate years; renewable.
For more information, please visit: http://www.fc2success.org/programs/scholarships-and-grants

ALLINA HEALTH EMPOWER SCHOLARSHIP
Administered by the Courage Kenny Foundation, the EMPOWER Scholarship encourages and supports ethnically diverse students who are pursuing a career in a medical or rehabilitation field. In order to be eligible, students must be accepted to or enrolled in a post-high school program, residents of Minnesota or eastern Wisconsin, experienced in a community-based medical or rehabilitation volunteer position, have a minimum GPA of 2.0 and demonstrate financial need.
For more information, please visit: https://www.allinahospital.org/courage-kenny-rehabilitation-institute/programs-and-services/volunteer-opportunities/empower-scholarships

SCHOLARSHIP FOR ACADEMIC STUDIES
The Organization of American States (OAS) Academic Scholarships are awarded to persons admitted to or enrolled in undergraduate or graduate studies (Bachelor's, Master's, or Doctorate degree) and/or graduate research that leads to a degree at a university or higher learning institution in an OAS Member State, with the exception of his/her own sponsoring country. Studies must be carried out on a full-time basis, and may be pursued on-site, by distance education, or a combination of the two.

The scholarship is awarded for a period of no more than two academic years, and the renewal for the second academic year is subject to the availability of funds and granted only to continue the same program of study for which the scholarship was initially awarded.

The total financial award from the OAS may not exceed U.S. $30,000 per academic year which includes tuition, other scholarship benefits, and administrative costs. Deadline: varies.
For more information, please visit: http://www.oas.org/en/scholarships/default.asp

THE RECOVERY VILLAGE HEALTH CARE SCHOLARSHIP
The Recovery Village is offering a $1,000 scholarship to students pursuing a medical-related course of study. Students may submit a short essay describing why they are passionate about substance use disorders and mental health treatment. Essays can be in the form of a personal narrative with a medical perspective or focus specifically on clinical experience. Applicant must be enrolled or accepted in an accredited college as well as a U.S. citizen or permanent U.S. resident.
For more information, please visit: https://www.therecoveryvillage.com/scholarships/#gref