

LITERARY LIONS FUND FOR ART HISTORY RESEARCH

The Literary Lions Fund awards enrichment grants to faculty in support of scholarly research in Art History. Submitted materials will be reviewed by the Dean's Selection Committee. For 2019-20 there will be two awards for $2,500 each.

Eligibility Criteria

- Full-time tenured, tenure-track, and part-time faculty currently teaching in the degree program who have taught at least 10 courses at SAIC.
- Submission of scholarly research in Art History, Theory, and Criticism.

Selections are based on the strength of the proposal, the applicants record of scholarship and professional achievement, the length of tenure at the institution, and the candidate's history of awards at SAIC. For full-time faculty, priority consideration will be given to applicants who have actively contributed to the school community through service.

Grants are not awarded to cover tuition costs at any institution, equipment purchases, travel for conferences, or publications for exhibitions or events. Grants for expenses associated with research for potential courses are not considered.
