

.Martin Luther King, Jr. Mural Competition - Call for Submissions

Help Hostelling International Chicago celebrate Martin Luther King, Jr. Day 2020

Twenty student artists will be selected to paint individual pieces honoring the life and work of Dr. King and the continuing struggle for social justice today on the 2nd floor windows of Hostelling International Chicago.

A panel of judges will evaluate the artwork and 1st and 2nd place prizes will be awarded to the students whose works best represent the spirit of the exhibit.

- 1st Place: $200
- 2nd Place: $100

All artists who are invited to participate will receive recognition at the artists' reception held on the day after Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Tuesday, January 21, 2020.

Submission Process

Students must submit a portfolio of up to 10 images of recent work along with this submission form in person, by mail, or email by Monday November 18, 2019.

Portfolios may be submitted in person at the hostel or electronically to Callan McNamara (see contact information below).

Artists selected to create paintings for the windows will be notified by Monday December 2, 2019. Artists will have from January 1-10, 2020 to paint. The final paintings will be on display on Martin Luther King Day through the end of February.

Contact Information:

Callan McNamara
Hostelling International Chicago
24 E Ida B Wells Drive, Chicago, IL 60605
Direct: 312-425-4316 Fax: 312-583-2219
Email: Callan.McNamara@hiosa.org

Portfolio Submission Form

Name
School		Graduation Year
Address
Phone
Email

I confirm that the portfolio I have submitted for this competition is my own work. I understand that the portfolio remains my property and I am responsible for retrieving the portfolio after December 3, 2019. Hostelling International Chicago is not responsible for lost or damaged portfolios.

Signature
------------------	--